

The Calvarymen Quartet

The past few years the Calvarymen have been able to work with some of the finest individuals in the Southern Gospel industry. Here is what they have to say about the Calvarymen:

"I first heard this cd (Travelin' Light) at the National Quartet Convention. I must admit that I was blown away! The Calvarymen have grown to a whole new level of professionalism and ministry. I am truly proud of the work these men have produced and I am honored to call them friends." - Michael Booth (Booth Brothers)

"WHAT AN HONOR AND PRIVILEGE TO BE ASKED TO PRODUCE THE LATEST PROJECT FOR THE CALVARYMEN. NEVER HAVE I WORKED WITH A MORE TALENTED GROUP, OR ONE MORE COMMITTED TO MAKING GREAT MUSIC. THEY HAVE THE UNIQUE ABILITY TO TAKE EACH VOCAL ARRANGEMENT, NO MATTER HOW COMPLEX, AND PRESENT IT IN A WAY THAT IS BOTH IMPRESSIVE AND ENJOYABLE TO LISTEN TO." Bob Caldwell - former member of the Kingdom Heirs, One By One, Statesman, and Brian Free and Assurance

Taken from "In My Opinion" - Singing News - February 2006

"Before I close, a quick word about a marvelous quartet from the state of Michigan called the Calvarymen. I've yet to see these gentlemen in person, but I do have some of their recordings, and believe me, they know what they're doing. Their sound is professional and polished. They are reminiscent, at times, of the Imperials of the late 60s. Not contemporary, but a tad progressive. Extremely musical. their choice of songs are most tasteful and their arrangements are superb. You can tell by listening to them that they still feel that quality is important. I enthusiastically endorse this great quartet, the Calvarymen. Watch for them!"
Roy Pauley "Singing News Columnist"

*"I was expecting the new Calvarymen CD, but I wasn't prepared for what I would hear. What an album! An even bigger surprise was the times I found myself quietly praising the Lord. You men sang such rich lyrics throughout the entire album. That doesn't happen to me often, but I just couldn't help myself. The accumulated truth and challenge of the songs you selected just got to me. I speak from a lifetime of experience when I say that you will never regret having presented the crucified and risen Christ, and the hope He offers, in your music. So long as your focus is on Him, His cross, His blood and His indwelling, you simply can't miss." "You masterfully handled some very complex and intricate vocals that made my day. Who gets the credit for the vocal arrangements
?..."*

..."What They Are Saying continued ...

Superb! All of you men have refreshing vocal styles and the sum is even bigger than the several parts. I can't say enough good things about how it hit me. Keep up the wonderful ministry and watch the Lord increase your harvest of souls and he'll meet your every personal need too. In these uncertain days our Christian brothers and sisters need encouragement and support and you all are providing it in your thought provoking music."

Neil Enlowe of the Original Couriers and writer of "Statue Of Liberty" and 100's of songs

"When the Calvarymen asked me to provide some of the tracks for their Christmas project, I was not only flattered, but excited as well. I always enjoy being part of a project with people who strive for quality and polish on their recordings. I had heard the Calvarymen on some of their previous projects, but it wasn't until I heard this project (Christmas Gift) that I realized the Calvarymen are one of the finest quartets in the Gospel Music Industry today. They have not only captured the holiday spirit in their singing, but their vocals are fantastic, creative, and most important – CORRECT! These guys really put in the effort to cultivate the talents God has given them on this project. I know you will not only receive a blessing as you listen, but I know you'll be impressed as well! Thanks, guys, for letting me be a part of this timeless piece of work!" Jeff Stice (pianist for Nelons, Perfect Heart, Triumphant Quartet

"I've been associated with the Calvarymen for over 35 years....In a world where so many people throw in the towel before they get started ... these Gentlemen have proven themselves to be trusted to provide the best in Gospel Music." Donnie Cox, host of Quartet Time, a syndicated gospel radio program

BOOKING INFORMATION:

Barry Maust

bookcalvarymen@gmail.com

(810) 412-8711